

2017 Flinders University Young Playwrights Award

TERMS & CONDITIONS

- To be eligible, playwrights must be South Australian, 25 years of age or under at 1 June 2017.
- Scripts need to be received by 5pm 5 May 2017. Entries received after this date will not be read.
- Scripts need to be single sided, unbound and not be stapled together.
- An email confirmation that your script has been received will be sent.
- All scripts are read by two State Theatre Company representatives who decide the shortlist.
- Shortlisted scripts are read by a Flinders University representative, before the panel decides the final winners.
- Winners will be notified by phone.
- Commendations may be awarded in each category, receiving only a certificate at the public reading.
- The Senior winner must be available for the public reading Monday 17 July.
- Winners in each category will need to negotiate dramaturgical sessions during July with State Theatre Company.
- Scripts will not be returned, so do not send in your original script.
- Keep an electronic copy of your script, if you win, you will need to do editing.
- Feedback will only be given to shortlisted plays.
- A letter will be sent mid-July regarding the outcome of your script.
- We cannot accept scripts that have had prior development or have been performed by an amateur or professional company.
- All entrants are welcome and encouraged to attend the public reading on Monday 17 July.
